Highlights

The district had several academic, instructional, and facility projects accomplished during the 2004-2005 school year.

Students met AYP expectations in reading, mathematics, and language. The academy of mathematics and reading helped elementary students make significant academic progress. High school students are making significant gains in their ISAT scores with our ISAT Prep programs along with the ISAT testing now made available in the computer lab.

The district has provided training and staff development to meet the Highly Qualified requirement under the NCLB legislation. All teachers should meet these requirements by next fall.

The school facilities projects have included a new high school computer lab. The district rebuilt its football stadium and ball field. The high school weight room was remodeled to meet safety standards. Our elementary has new playground equipment to the meet safety requirements.

Progress Towards Meeting Goals
